Yeongmin Gil is a partner at Shin & Kim who leads the firm's Southeast Asia Team and serves as the Managing Partner of the Vietnam Branch and the Head of the Singapore Office, overseeing the Ho Chi Minh, Hanoi, Singapore, and Jakarta offices. Mr. Gil mainly advises on finance, real estate, M&A, and SOC investments in Vietnam and other Southeast Asian countries.

Mr. Gil graduated from Seoul National University College of Law and earned a Master's degree (LLM) from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law. He has also completed the 33rd Class of the Judicial Research and Training Institute and admitted to the New York State Bar. Before joining Shin & Kim, his practice revolved around securities and finance-related matters, including financial M&A deals (of banks, securities, insurance, credit rating agencies, etc.), IPOs, real estate finance, mezzanine financing (including CB/BW), acquisition finance, unfair trade practices, and regulations at Jipyong LLC and Shin & Kim Seoul Office. In addition, Mr. Gil had served at Allen & Overy's Hong Kong office for six months, which helped him accumulate a basis for international transactions and finance. Now Mr. Gil has become an expert who offers top-notch services to Korean companies on their investments in Vietnam and Southeast Asia and local legal issues since 2016, based on his extensive expertise gained across Korea, the U.S., and Hong Kong.
