Mr. Kun-Hee Yun is a certified public accountant at Shin & Kim where he provides tax advisory services related to tax audit defense and tax disputes.

Mr. Yun joined the National Tax Service in 2005, where he managed various tax filings and conducted tax investigations, including value-added tax and property tax. From 2010, he worked for about two years in the Mid-North Regional Tax Office, conducting investigations and assessments related to corporate taxes. In 2012, he moved to the Tax Tribunal, where he worked for about 14 years, conducting investigations into tax dispute cases and reviewing adjustments in the administrative office for domestic and local taxes. At the Tax Tribunal, he played a crucial role in fairly resolving tax disputes by investigating the facts of the cases, conducting legal reviews, and reviewing adjustments to mediate between taxpayers and the government.
