Mr. Euisu Lee is a partner at Shin & Kim. Mr. Lee's practice focuses on criminal cases and financial sector.

Mr. Lee made his career as prosecutors at Daegu District Prosecutors' Office, Gongju Branch of Daejeon District Prosecutors' Office, Seoul Eastern District Prosecutors' Office, Cheongju District Prosecutors' Office, and Seoul Central District Prosecutors' Office from February 2003 to August 2016. During his service as prosecutor, Mr. Lee was particularly involved in special and finance-related investigations for conglomerates. Mr. Lee directly investigated the unfair transactions, such as use of undisclosed material information, at capital market and also participated, as a Member of Investigation & Review Committee of Capital Market, in review of various unfair transaction cases.

Mr. Lee resigned as a prosecutor and joined Shin & Kim in October 2016. As a member of the Criminal Practice Group, Mr. Lee has successfully defended a number of criminal cases involving corporate corruption and other matters. In addition, he has served as a member of the KOSPI Listing and Disclosure Committee of the Korea Exchange, a member of the Dispute Mediation Committee of the Korea Exchange, a member of the Korean Statutory Interpretation Deliberation Committee of the Financial Services Commission, a member of the Active Administrative Committee of the Financial Services Commission, a member of the Sanctions Review Committee of the Financial Supervisory Service, and a member of the Disciplinary Committee of the Financial Supervisory Service. In March 2024, Mr. Lee moved to Wemade Co., Ltd., where he oversaw legal affairs, including domestic and international litigation related to gaming, IP, virtual assets, and blockchain until August 2025.
