Mr. Hyun Tae Kim is a US certified public accountant at Shin & Kim. Leveraging his profound accounting expertise cultivated in the field of International Taxation, Mr. Kim provides strategic defense and advisory services within the firm's Trade Remedy Group.

Mr. Kim has extensive experience in providing international tax consultancy and conducting tax audits for various global enterprises. Through these experiences, he has developed a keen analytical ability to dissect complex corporate accounting structures and international transactions. In particular, he possesses a core strength in analyzing financial statements and calculating cost structures for multinational corporations. This expertise allows him to deliver sophisticated accounting-based responses in critical areas such as calculating dumping margins and evaluating subsidy benefits in countervailing duty (CVD) investigations.

By combining his accounting knowledge, which aligns with global standards, with deep insights into the international trade environment, Mr. Kim provides optimal strategic solutions. His mission is to empower domestic companies to respond effectively to overseas trade remedy measures and to minimize potential trade risks in an increasingly complex global market.
